Division III World Series Choses Inaugural Host Hotel!

Pittsburgh, PA - The National Club Baseball Association is excited to announce that they have chosen the first ever Host Hotel for the DIII World Series. Teams and fans will be able to stay at the pristine Hampton Inn in Dubois, PA!

Division III World Series will be taking place at Showers Field in DuBois, PA which is only 2 miles from the Hampton Inn! There, guests can take advantage of a great rate of $104/night, a deluxe continental breakfast, indoor pool, hot tub, fitness center, and laundry facility! To book, call 814-375-1000 and mention "National Club Baseball Association" to get the negotiated rate. Remember: reservations MUST be made by May 11th with a rooming list due by the 14th of that month.

"The Hampton Inn will be a phenomenal host hotel for the inaugural Division III World Series," says Alex Kane, Director of Division III Baseball Operations. "The Hampton Inn and all of its wonderful amenities will only add to the overall experience for our team's and fans. The Hampton Inn is in a great location as well as it is surrounded by great restaurants and is only 2 miles from the field! Overall, we are thrilled with this partnership and look forward to our stay during our event!"

The NCBA is very much looking forward to the event as the top four DIII teams in the nation will be at Showers Field for a double elimination tournament May 18-20, 2018 and the winner will be crowned the 2018 NCBA DIII National Champions!
