NCBA Division III World Series Signs the Holiday Inn Johnstown-Downtown as Host Hotel

Pittsburgh, PA -- The NCBA is excited to announce that we have reached an agreement with the Holiday Inn Johnstown-Downtown, making them the official host hotel of the 2020 NCBA Division III World Series sponsored by Rawlings™.

The Holiday Inn is conveniently located in downtown Johnstown, just a 10 minute walk from Sargent's Stadium at the Point where every game of the 2020 NCBA DIII World Series will take place. The inn offers our teams and fans a great combination of amenities at a rate of $115 per night. Rooms house up to 4 people and include wireless internet access. Other amenities include a restaurant, laundry service, fitness center, indoor pool, hot tub, and free shuttle services. Parking fees are waived.

"We are excited to once again partner with the Holiday Inn Johnstown-Downtown" says Tom McManus, Director of NCBA DIII Baseball Operations. "They have been the host hotel for multiple World Series events in the past and has proven to be a great location. Just a short walk to the ballpark and close to many of the restaurants and attractions that downtown Johnstown has to offer, the hotel will contribute to an already great atmosphere for the World Series and add to the experience of all participating teams".

Qualifying teams must contact the hotel directly to make their reservations under the room block titled "NCBA DIII World Series." Parents interested in staying at the Holiday Inn can make their reservations under the room block titled "NCBA Parents." The phone number to call is (855) 444-3694.
