Official Tournament Program

Family, Friends, and Fans of the NCBA,

Welcome to Pullman Park in Butler. We are proud to host the 6th Annual NCBA Division III World Series and are excited to have you join us for this premier National Championship event. Each year, student-athletes from colleges and universities across the country compete for the opportunity to capture the NCBA DIII National Title, showcasing their talent, dedication, and passion for the game of baseball.

Located just 45 minutes north of Pittsburgh, Butler offers a unique and welcoming environment that perfectly complements the spirit of this event. Known for its small-town charm and deep appreciation for the game, the area provides a memorable experience for players, families, and fans alike. Whether enjoying local breweries or simply taking in the atmosphere of everyday life in the community, Butler creates an ideal backdrop for a championship tournament. Pullman Park itself stands as a cornerstone of that experience—a historic ballpark originally built in 1934 and restored in 2008. Having hosted minor league affiliates of organizations such as the New York Yankees and Pittsburgh Pirates, and welcoming legends like Lou Gehrig and Joe DiMaggio, the stadium carries a rich baseball tradition that continues today as it hosts hundreds of amateur and collegiate games each year.

For those new to the concept of club sports, a Club Baseball Program provides student-athletes with the opportunity to continue playing competitive baseball at the collegiate level. What sets the NCBA apart is its fully student-run structure. From scheduling and travel planning to fundraising, marketing, and roster management, the responsibility falls on student leadership to build and sustain their program. This model not only allows players to compete at a high level, but also creates invaluable real-world experience in sports management, leadership, and organizational development. The result is a league made up of driven individuals who are not only committed to the game, but to growing something of their own on campus.

Now in its 25th season since being founded in 2000, the NCBA continues to provide opportunities for student-athletes across the country. With 53 member teams competing in Division III and expansion into new states each year, the league's growth is a testament to the demand for competitive, student-driven baseball. At its core, the NCBA offers players the chance to continue their careers for the pure love of the game, while competing annually for a National Championship.

We would like to extend our sincere appreciation to Experience Butler County for their support in making this event possible. We would also like to thank the families, friends, and fans in attendance for supporting collegiate club baseball across the United States. Your continued enthusiasm plays a vital role in the growth of this organization.

Thank you for joining us at Pullman Park. We hope you enjoy the competition, the atmosphere, and the tradition that makes the NCBA Division III World Series a truly special event.

Sincerely,

Sandy Sanderson
President

"I couldn't be more proud of this team. The guys who saw the vision from inception as sophomores are now seniors leading us to the World Series in just our second year in the NCBA. Eight freshmen stepped up and made a real impact alongside them this year. This group has put in the work day in and day out, everyone holds each other accountable and nobody cares who gets the credit. We're going back to Butler to finish what we started and show the country what John Carroll is made of."
